3. Terms of this transfer

The terms of this transfer are:

- E-Access will supply your DSL service from the date the transfer takes effect (we will notify you when that happens);
- You will pay E-Access for all charges associated with the service from the date this transfer takes effect; you will still be responsible to your current DSL supplier for any charges incurred and/or billed up to the date the transfer takes effect;
- E-Access may refuse or cancel your service on the basis of its credit assessment of you;
- After the transfer, you may not be able to receive certain benefits you currently receive from your DSL supplier (eg discounts or specific product enhancements);
- You authorise E-Access to act on your behalf to transfer your DSL service;
- If you require ongoing technical support for your DSL modem you will need to contact us to check whether we can provide that support;
- Your DSL service will remain active with your current DSL supplier until the transfer takes place;
- You will need to contact your current DSL supplier about any faults with your DSL service until this transfer takes place; and
- You may experience an outage in your DSL service of up to 4 hours whilst the transfer takes place.

4. Privacy

You consent to E-Access:

- a) Obtaining a consumer credit report and/or information about your commercial activities and commercial creditworthiness from a credit reporting agency or any other business that reports on commercial creditworthiness; and
- b) Obtaining credit information about you from other credit providers to assess your application for commercial credit, assess the status of any account you have with E-Access (not just the account to which this application applies) or to collect overdue payments from you
- c) Disclosing credit information about you, including:
  - Permitted identification details;
  - The fact that you have applied to obtain E-Access services and the credit terms (if any) of those services;
  - Information in your application
  - The fact that in E-Access's opinion you have committed a serious credit infringement (if applicable);
  - Information relating to the conduct of your account, such as that payments are overdue, cheques of more than $100 have been dishonoured when presented more than once or that payments are no longer overdue from you, to:
    - i. Credit reporting agencies for the purpose of obtaining a consumer credit report about you, creating a credit information file or including information in credit information file maintained by the credit reporter; and
    - ii. Credit providers named in a credit report, for the purpose of assessing this application for commercial credit, notifying other credit providers named of a default by you, exchanging information as to the status of your account where you are in default with other credit providers or to assess your creditworthiness; or
    - iii. Collection agents if your account is overdue, for the purpose of recovering overdue moneys. E-Access requires its collection agents to treat information passed on to them in a confidential manner in order to protect the privacy of the customers concerned;
- d) Using any personal information in your application form to provide, administer and maintain the services sought to be provided by E-Access, prepare accounts for those services and for targeted direct or indirect marketing of other E-Access products; and
- e) Disclose any personal information in your application form to outsourcing entities engaged by E-Access to perform the functions above.

You also consent to your current DSL supplier disclosing credit and personal information relating to your service accounts with that supplier and service numbers to E-Access to effect the transfer to E-Access.

You can access and request correction of any credit information about you or any personal information relating to you held by E-Access. Please contact 1300 13 88 10 to obtain access to that information.

5. Other information

- You can contact E-Access by phoning 1300 13 88 10 if you have any questions or complaints about this transfer
- E-Access will notify you that the transfer of your DSL service has been completed within 10 working days of the transfer taking place.
